COURSE DESCRIPTION
This course considers the social construction of gender, sexuality, race, class, and other identity categories. We will rely on close readings and analysis of primary texts coupled with examination of historical, cultural, and societal factors. This approach will emphasize:

- Ideologies that inhabit, haunt, and shape the texts [and their authors]
- How style elements reflect and inform a text’s discourse
- How no text exists in an artistic vacuum
- That a multitude of interpretations exist for any text we study.

Twentieth and 21st century American texts that deal with gender and sexuality issues comprise the majority of the course. I added a few international and 19th century texts that illustrate how issues of gender and sexuality resonate throughout time and within all nationalities. The class strongly focuses on developing compassion and understanding as well as examining prejudices that hinder human beings from relating to one another.

GENERAL EDUCATION OBJECTIVES, COURSE OBJECTIVES, AND STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES
By the end of this course, students will be expected to have achieved the following learning outcomes in content, communication, and critical thinking.

WST 2611 satisfies the General Education Requirements for the following areas:

Writing Requirement (WR) 2,000 words
The Writing Requirement (WR) ensures students both maintain their fluency in writing and use writing as a tool to facilitate learning. Course grades have two components. To receive writing requirement credit, a student must receive a grade of C or higher and a satisfactory completion of the writing component of the course. Your instructor will evaluate and provide feedback on all of your written assignments with respect to grammar, punctuation, clarity, coherence, and organization.

Diversity (D)
Diversity courses provide instruction in the values, attitudes and norms that create cultural differences within the United States. These courses encourage students to recognize how social roles and status affect different groups in the United States. Students are expected to analyze and evaluate their own cultural norms and values in relation to those of other cultures, and to distinguish opportunities and constraints faced by other persons and groups. You must earn a “C” grade or higher to receive Diversity credit. The topic of diversity will be threaded into all our class meetings. We will discuss how the issues of diversity that appear in the critical essays and films we study intersect in students’ lives and experiences.

Humanities (H)

Humanities courses provide instruction in the history, key themes, principles, terminology, and theory or methodologies used within a humanities discipline or the humanities in general. Students will learn to identify and to analyze the key elements, biases and influences that shape thought. These courses emphasize clear and effective analysis and approach issues and problems from multiple perspectives. You must earn a “C” grade or higher to receive Humanities credit. The topic of humanities studies will be threaded into all our class meetings. We will discuss how the issues of the humanities that appear in the critical essays and films we study intersect in students’ lives and experiences.

Subject Area Student Learning Outcomes

Achievement of these learning outcomes will be assessed through two non-cumulative exams, the modified precis, the analysis essay, and participation in class discussions.

Learning Objectives:

As a result of this class, I hope you will all learn:

- A new and richer awareness and compassion concerning how gender and sexuality shape the way (primarily Western/American) ideology operates
- How these issues touch your lives every day
- Enthusiasm for exploring artistic texts that will inspire you beyond the borders of this course
- The confidence from becoming a better reader, writer, and thinker.

Course Objectives:

By the end of the semester, students should be able to:

1. Trace the evolving attitudes towards gender and sexuality and how they intersect with race and class within Western culture (predominantly that of the U.S.)
2. Explain the ways in which changing historical circumstances, including but not limited to changing ideals of masculinity and femininity, have shaped those attitudes
3. Apply analytical concepts developed through class reading and discussion to thoughtful, clearly written independent work
4. Describe the concept of gender as a performance undertaken within specific historical circumstances.
5. Establish a quality of writing at the level of sentences, paragraphing, and constructing arguments that complies with the requirements of a “2,000 word” Gordon Rule class.

Attendance and Make Up Policy
Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found in the online catalog at: https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx.

Attendance in this class is mandatory. You may miss FOUR classes (unexcused absences) with no penalty to your grade. For each unexcused absence after FOUR, you will lose 10 points off your final grade. However, in general, acceptable reasons for absence from or failure to participate in class include illness, serious family emergencies, special curricular requirements (e.g., judging trips, field trips, and professional conferences), military obligation, severe weather conditions, religious holidays, and participation in official university activities such as music performances, athletic competition or debate. Absences from class for court-imposed legal obligations (e.g., jury duty or subpoena) must be excused. Other reasons also may be approved and will be handled by your instructor on a case-by-case basis.

How CLASS PARTICIPATION affects your grade
I expect students to participate in class discussions and pay attention. Although no “points” are assigned as part of your grade, let’s say, for example, your final grade is 895 (B+). If your class participation has been productive, your grade would be “bumped up” to an A-. If you have not participated in class, your grade would remain at a B+. I will look for “quality” not “quantity.” In other words, your grade will not be favorably influenced by talking just to talk. I expect you to make intelligent and insightful comments in relation to the films viewed and the materials read. In addition, inattention in class, such as reading the newspaper, checking social media, and checking your phone/internet for unrelated activities also will be noted and will discourage your instructor from “bumping up” your grade.

Work Expectations
You will have to plan on reading an average of 20 pages for each day of class. As we will deal with various types of texts/media, it is difficult to figure out how to measure these “pages.” For example, reading a two-page poem may take you more time than reading a twenty-page short story. Reading, as opposed to just moving your eyes across the page, is essential for informed discussion, background work for papers, and exam preparation, all of which are your responsibility. In order to avoid feeling crunched around the end of the semester, a good general rule is to spend two to three hours studying—reading, taking notes, visiting the Writing Studio in 2215 Turlington Hall—for each hour spent in class. The grading scale for this class reflects these expectations.

OTHER READING RESPONSIBILITIES |

ARES: There are additional readings for this course available for free through Library West’s Course Reserve System (ARES). You can access these readings through CANVAS from the COURSE RESERVES button in the left hand margin. You also can access them directly from Library West’s website: http://www.uflib.ufl.edu.

The specific readings are identified in the Schedule of Classes and Assignments. You can decide if you want to print the essays or use them online.

VISUAL TEXTS |

All visual texts are available to watch on DVD for free at Library West. They are on reserve for our class for 2 hours in-library use only. Go to the 2nd floor main desk to check out a DVD on reserve. Visual texts will be either viewed in class, in which case they will be coded blue on the syllabus, or they will have to be watch on your own, in which case they will be coded purple on the syllabus. If you miss any in-class screenings, you will have to watch the texts on your own. The table below shows each of our visual texts and how you can access them.

Modes of Submission

WRP and Analysis Essay:
- Are due at 10:40 am on the due date
- WRP and Analysis Essay must be uploaded on CANVAS in MS Word Only
- Double spaced and include the word count after your name in parentheses. Example: Sam Student (1225). For the WRP, you will record the word count for each of the four sections (See sample WRP for details).
- Use MLA citation style
- Late work will be penalized 10% per calendar day. The “late clock” begins at 10:41 am the day the paper is due, so the paper is 1-day late if it is turned in after 12:30 pm on the due date.

Opinion Essays:
- Are due at 10:40 am on the due date
- Upload on CANVAS in MS Word ONLY. Format as double-spaced and include the word count after your name in parentheses. Example: Suzy Student (1225).
- Turn in a printed copy (single sided). The CANVAS copy must match the paper copy exactly. Uploading the assignment on CANVAS alone stops the late clock, but the assignment will not be graded until both the CANVAS upload and the paper copy are submitted.
- Use proper MLA citation style for Works Cited and In-text Citations.

Optional Completed First Drafts on Modified Precis, Analysis Essay, and Opinion Essays:
- Are due at 10:40 am on the due date
- Upload on CANVAS under the assignment in question. Only completed drafts, on time drafts (including citations) can be accepted. No late first drafts can be accepted.
- Paper copy also needed for first draft of Opinion Essays. WRP and Analysis Essay only require CANVAS upload.

In-Class Exams:
- Exams are taken on paper in class.
- Your instructor will provide the paper
- You must be in class for the exam dates. Make-up exams are possible only if you can adequately document your inability to be present due to a personal hardship or due to your involvement in a university-sponsored event or a religious holiday.

Optional Rewrite:
- Are due at 10:40 am on the due date
- Available for WRP or Analysis Essay only (not both and not opinion essays)
- Upload rewrite under Optional Rewrite Assignment on CANVAS
- No late rewrites can be accepted
- Late points cannot be made up in rewrites

ASSIGNMENT DESCRIPTIONS
You will complete five assignments this semester (and one optional assignment, if you choose):

1. One Writing Response Paper [WRP] (900 minimum words): 200 points (20% of grade)
2. One Analysis Essay (900 minimum words): 200 points (20% of grade)
3. Opinion Essays (2 submitted together) (600 minimum words – 2 @ 300 words): 100 points (2 @ 50 points each): 10% of grade
4. Two In-class, non-cumulative, closed book exams: 2 @ 250 points = 500 points (50% of grade)
5. Optional Rewrite of either WRP or Analysis Essay for the average of the two grades.

You are responsible for reviewing the detailed assignment documents for each assignment. You can find these descriptions on CANVAS under each assignment.

1. Writing Response Reading Paper (WRP): 900 words minimum to 1100 maximum
   You will choose one of the texts studied either in the 1st part of the semester or the 2nd part of the semester (depending on what assignment group you are assigned to). This assignment has four parts:
   a. Thesis: Identify the author’s thesis of the text
   b. Summary: Summarize text in your own words
   c. ITC (Intertextual connection): Compare and contrast the text you summarized to a text you found outside of class.

2. Analysis Essay: 900 words minimum to 1600 maximum
   You will write a thesis-driven essay that will require close analytical reading of texts and/or comparison/contrast of two texts. You will have a choice of several possible prompts to use as your starting point for your analysis essay. You will receive a detailed assignment sheet for this assignment early in the semester.

3. Opinion Essays: 600 words minimum to no maximum
   In one paper, you will write two brief opinion essays on any two films of the semester. Each essay will have one text as its subject. Each essay will be thoughtful, creative, specific, and will cover how you personally interacted with the text. You can discuss it in terms of your personal experiences, intersectionalities, American or world culture or politics, history, or a combination of any of these elements. This assignment is designed to see how you relate to the two texts in terms of issues that you deem important or interesting; you will have a lot of freedom in how you approach the texts. You will also have to produce a works cited page for each essay with the text and any outside texts you may have used.

4. In-Class, Closed-Book Reading/Comprehension Exams
   You must keep up with the reading so you can participate meaningfully in class discussions and get the maximum benefits from this course. In order to get credit for keeping up with the reading and taking good notes, you will take TWO closed-book reading/comprehension exams to demonstrate that you are adequately reading, paying attention in class, and understanding and interpreting the texts. Each reading exam is non-cumulative and requires you identify prompts from reading/viewing assignments as well as answer multiple-choice questions.

5. Optional Re-write
   You will have the option to rewrite either the WRP or Analysis Essay for the average of the two grades (you can only rewrite one essay). In order to get credit for the rewrite, you must upload your rewrite on CANVAS under “Optional Rewrite.” Late points cannot be made up with rewrites. Late rewrites cannot be accepted.

Important Information about the Class on Last 2 pages: 11 and 12 - Please Read Carefully

University Policies Regarding Plagiarism and Academic Dishonesty

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code (http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor in this class.

Your work will be tested for its “originality” against a wide variety of databases by anti-plagiarism guardian sites to which the university subscribes, and negative reports from such sites constitute PROOF of plagiarism. Other forms of academic dishonesty will also result in a failing grade on the assignment as a minimum penalty. Examples include cutting and pasting a BLOG entry or citing phony sources/quotations to include in your assignments. You are responsible for understanding the University's definitions of plagiarism and academic dishonesty, which include the following:

- Submitting all or part of someone else's work as if it is your own.
- “Borrowing” all or portions of anything (books, song lyrics, poetry, movie scripts) without crediting the source.
- “Borrowing” verbatim text without enclosing in quotation marks and citing source. As a general rule, anytime you cut and paste you are citing a source. If you do any cutting and pasting without giving credit to that source, you are committing plagiarism.
- Making "duplicate submissions" of assignments - that is, submitting work in one class that you also submit in another class (UNLESS you have permission of both instructors in advance and IN WRITING).
- “Collaborating” or receiving substantive help in writing your assignment also constitutes plagiarism unless such collaboration is part of the given assignment. However, you may receive general advice from tutors or UF writing lab instructors and you may form study groups among your classmates to study for the exams.

For more information about academic honesty, including definitions and examples of plagiarism, see: http://web.uflib.ufl.edu/mls/07b/studentplagiarism.html

For more information, see the Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution Web site: https://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr or call 352-392-1261 x207.
Students with Disabilities
The University of Florida complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act. Students with disabilities requesting accommodation should contact the Students with Disabilities Resource Center (352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.

Paper Maintenance Responsibilities
Students are responsible for maintaining duplicate copies of all work submitted in this course and retaining all returned, graded work until the semester is over. Should the need arise for a resubmission of papers or a review of graded papers; the student is responsible for making this material available.

Classroom Behavior
Please keep in mind that students come from diverse cultural, economic, and ethnic backgrounds. Some of the texts we will study engage controversial topics and opinions. Diversified student backgrounds combined with provocative texts require that you demonstrate respect for ideas that may differ from your own. Disrespectful behavior will result in dismissal, and accordingly absence, from the class.

University Writing Studio
The writing studio is committed to helping University of Florida students meet their academic and professional goals by becoming better writers. Visit the writing studio online at http://writing.ufl.edu/writing-studio/ or in 2215 Turlington Hall for one-on-one consultations and workshops.

Course Evaluation
Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course based on 10 criteria. These evaluations are conducted online at https://evaluations.ufl.edu. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at https://evaluations.ufl.edu.

Notification Letter from the Dean of Students’ Office
Students who experience a family or personal emergency (death in the family, unplanned hospitalization, etc.) may contact the Dean of Students Office and request notification letters be sent to their professors. Students are required to provide faculty members with appropriate documentation to support their absence unless, due to the nature of the issue, the information is provided to and verified by the Dean of Students’ Office.

Student Counseling and Mental Health
Campus resources are available for students having personal problems or lacking clear career and academic goals which interfere with their academic performance. These resources include:

• UF Counseling & Wellness Center (CWC): (352) 392-1575 for documentation, stress and wellness, mental health screening, concerns about a classmate, self-help, sexual or physical abuse http://www.counseling.ufl.edu/cwc/

• Career Resource Center: 392-1601, First floor, Reitz Union, career development assistance

For Emergencies
University Police Department: 352-392-1111
