Course Description:

Drawing on materials and methodologies from a variety of disciplines, this class explores the diverse experiences of women, both in past eras and in the present, in the U.S. and abroad. Required for the Women's Studies major and minor; fulfills the General Education requirement in diversity.

Required Texts:

Most of the reading for this course will be available on Canvas for free, with the exception of one book you can purchase for under $10. Please get this book as soon as possible and start reading it so it is not left until the end of the semester:

1. Kristof, Nicholas D, and Sheryl WuDunn. Half the Sky: Turning Oppression into Opportunity for Women Worldwide (New York: Vintage Books, 2010). ISBN: 9780307387097

Student Learning Outcomes:

1. Compare, contrast, and evaluate the claims of feminist thinkers from different periods and social locations.
2. Identify, describe, and explain the overlaps and differences among the domains of "gender," "sexualities," and "women's studies" scholarship.
3. Describe and explain the nature of intersectional analysis.
4. Analyze and evaluate texts that encode social expectations for gendered and sexed identity.
5. Identify, describe, and analyze the ways in which social expectations shape gendered and sexed identity.
6. Communicate clearly, effectively, and, when appropriate, in correct scholarly form, about gender and feminism.

Grading Policies:

All assignments for the course will be graded on a 20-point scale. For essays, please refer to the rubric provided for further explanation of grade break downs. Students should aspire for excellent performance on each category for any written assignment.

There are no makeup assignments or extra credit opportunities in this class. If you participate, you will receive credit for the effort you put forth.

Grading Scale

This class is broken down into 100 points. Each assignment is worth 20 points and holds equal weight and importance in the class. Check out the below scale to see how your points will translate to grades.

Grade	Points	Grade	Points
A	94-100	C	73-76
A-	90-93	C-	70-72
B+	87-89	D+	67-69
B	83-86	D	63-66
B-	80-82	D-	60-62
C+	77-79	E	0-59

Course Requirements:

In order to receive a passing grade, students must submit all assigned work. Failure to complete all assigned course work will result in a failing grade. Each piece of the class and the assignments associated share an equal importance. The course is split to provide equal weight for each assignment. The assignment types are as follows:

Graded Assignments	Assignment Description	Percentage
Assigned Reading & Documentary Unit Reflections (3)	Upload one document with all of your reflection responses from the readings. Your document should meet the assigned word length requirement of at least 800 words. Be sure to include citations (from documentaries or attached readings). Each unit reflection document is worth 20% of your grade for a total of 60% of the course points.	60%
Midterm Assignment (1)	The midterm assignment will be an essay requiring you to incorporate the themes we've learned in the first half of the course and apply them to a real-world example through an examination of current events. I will provide you with several options to write about and give flexibility in your topic choices. The prompt will be posted at least one week in advance of the due date. You will have a week dedicated to completing this assignment where you will not be required to attend class or read. You should spend class time in the library researching your topics. Your midterm paper should be a minimum of 800 words and will be worth 20 points toward your final grade.	20%
Final Assignment (1)	Final Exam is due on Canvas by December 15 th at 11:59pm. The final assignment will be a comprehensive essay covering topics we discussed throughout the course. You will have several topics to choose from and should pick one you find most compelling. This assignment will ask you to think about how this course has altered your perceptions of common aspects of popular culture and society in relation to gender studies. Your final paper should be a minimum of 800 words and will be worth 20 points toward your final grade.	20%

Attendance

Attendance in this course is recommended, but not required. If you choose to access all course content through Canvas, your grade will not be impacted by not attending in-person lectures. I will be in class on the assigned days and times to deliver lectures, interact with students, and facilitate discussion. I would love to see you there, but no part of your calculated grade is based upon attendance.

Email Etiquette:

Please feel free to email me with any questions, comments, or concerns you may have throughout the semester. I will do my best to respond to your inquiries within 24 hours. When using email, please be sure to write a brief description of your communication in the subject line. In the body of the email, please begin with a greeting, write your request, and end your email with a sign off phrase and your name. I will not respond to your emails unless they adhere to proper etiquette.

Academic Integrity:

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge, which states, "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied:

“On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honorcode/>) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor in this class.

Students Requiring Accommodations:

Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter, which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.

Course Evaluation Process

Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/>. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens and can complete evaluations through the e-mail they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluer.com/ufl/>. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/>.

In Class Recording

Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are (1) for personal educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the university, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor. A “class lecture” is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course.

A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session. Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To “publish” means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third-party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.

Consider adding a (second) major in Women's Studies!

Do you want to learn about issues of diversity, power, equity, and justice and gain the scholarly knowledge and skills to change the world? Adding the Women's Studies major can deepen your critical thinking, analysis, and skills in intersectional feminist approaches to studying and transforming gender, race, class, sexualities and other systems of power. The Women's Studies major shows graduate schools and employers that you bring advanced knowledge and skills about diversity and equity issues. The 30-credit Women's Studies major consists of four core courses and six electives. It's simple to combine with another major, and up to 15 credits can double count with another degree (English, Psychology, and Sociology in particular have many courses that can double count). It's also the perfect complement to pre-health studies. Contact undergraduate coordinator Dr. Alyssa Zucker (azucker@ufl.edu) to make an appointment to discuss adding the major.

Course Schedule

NOTICE: Required reading and viewing materials can be found on Canvas. If the links don't work, simple Google searches will bring up most of the material, especially if you search through the UF library. This schedule is subject to change with fair notice provided. Please pay close attention to the course calendar, announcements, and emails. All reading should be completed BEFORE class meets. There are 5 firm assignment deadlines. Write them down and plan ahead!

Rubric

Category	(5 points) Exceeds Expectation	(4 points) Meets Expectation	(3.5 points) Needs Improvement	(0-3 points) Unacceptable
----------	--------------------------------	------------------------------	--------------------------------	---------------------------

Thesis	Clearly stated with direction for the content of the paper and consistently supported throughout.	Position is stated, but no clear direction for the content of the paper.	A fact is stated instead of an argumentative position. Needs development in order to serve as a working thesis.	No position statement or a position not related to the assigned topic.
Evidence	Every point was well supported with primary or secondary source material. Student provided several examples from assigned reading or lecture.	Points were adequately supported with examples from assigned readings or lecture materials. Student provided sufficient amount.	Points were supported with examples from the assigned readings and lectures, but the relevance of the support was debatable. More support was needed.	Student provided little or no evidentiary support for their claims or did not cite sources properly.
Organization	All points were clearly tied to the thesis statement in a structured manner.	Most body paragraphs tied back to the thesis statement, but student wandered off topic a bit.	Most points were tied to a premise, but there was no clear or logical structure to the presentation of the argument.	Arguments were not tied to the thesis or consistently wandered off topic.
Grammar	Paper well edited with no spelling, grammar, diction, or syntax errors. Perfectly formatted.	Paper edited and free of spelling and grammatical errors, but some issues with diction and sentence structure.	No spelling errors, but multiple grammar issues. Problems with diction and syntax.	Improperly formatted, multiple spelling and grammatical errors, improper English.
