

THE CENTER FOR GENDER, SEXUALITIES, AND WOMEN'S STUDIES RESEARCH PRESENTS

BODIES LIKE OCEANS: A DISCUSSION ON QUEERS IN NATURE WITH ARTIST SHOOG MCDANIEL

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 18TH, 4:00-5:30PM

Join Zoom Meeting:

<https://ufl.zoom.us/j/94558625941>

Meeting ID:

945 5862 5941

Shoog McDaniel (they/them) is a fat, queer Floridian freak who has been creating art in the swamps since early age. They are inspired by Florida flora and fauna and the beautiful fatties they photograph. They love color and patterns and creating alternative worlds to escape the one they're in. They are a photographer by trade and themes of nature worship and fat liberation can be seen throughout their work.