COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course considers the social construction of gender, sexuality, race, class, and other identity categories. We will rely on close readings and analysis of primary texts coupled with examination of historical, cultural, and societal factors. This approach will emphasize:

- Ideologies that inhabit, haunt, and shape the texts [and their authors]
- How style elements reflect and inform a text's discourse
- How no text exists in an artistic vacuum
- That a multitude of interpretations exist for any text we study.

The class strongly focuses on developing compassion and understanding as well as examining prejudices that hinder human beings from relating to one another.

GENERAL EDUCATION OBJECTIVES, COURSE OBJECTIVES, AND STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

By the end of this course, students will be expected to have achieved the following learning outcomes in content, communication, and critical thinking.

WST 2611 satisfies the General Education Requirements for the following areas:

Writing Requirement (WR) 2,000 words

The Writing Requirement (WR) ensures students both maintain their fluency in writing and use writing as a tool to facilitate learning. Course grades have two components. To receive writing requirement credit, a student must receive a grade of C or higher and a satisfactory completion of the writing component of the course. Your instructor will evaluate and provide feedback on all of your written assignments with respect to grammar, punctuation, clarity, coherence, and organization.

Diversity (D)

Diversity courses provide instruction in the values, attitudes and norms that create cultural differences within the United States. These courses encourage students to recognize how social roles and status affect different groups in the United States. Students are expected to analyze and evaluate their own cultural norms and values in relation to those of other cultures, and to distinguish opportunities and constraints faced by other persons and groups. You must earn a "C" grade or higher to receive Diversity credit. The topic of diversity will be threaded into all our class meetings. We will discuss how the issues of diversity that appear in the critical essays and films we study intersect in students' lives and experiences.

Humanities (H)

Humanities courses provide instruction in the history, key themes, principles, terminology, and theory or methodologies used within a humanities discipline or the humanities in general. Students will learn to identify and to analyze the key elements, biases and influences that shape thought. These courses emphasize clear and effective analysis and approach issues and problems from multiple perspectives. You must earn a "C" grade or higher to receive Humanities credit. The topic of humanities studies will be threaded into all our class meetings. We will discuss how the issues of the humanities that appear in the critical essays and films we study intersect in students' lives and experiences.

Learning Objectives:

As a result of this class, I hope you will all learn:

- A new and richer awareness and compassion concerning how gender and sexuality shape the way (primarily Western/American) ideology operates;
- How these issues touch your lives every day;
- Enthusiasm for exploring artistic texts that will inspire you beyond the borders of this course;
- The confidence from becoming a better reader, writer, and thinker.

Course Objectives:

By the end of the semester, students should be able to:

1. Trace the evolving attitudes towards gender and sexuality and how they intersect with race and class within Western culture (predominantly that of the U.S.).
2. Explain the ways in which changing historical circumstances, including but not limited to changing ideals of masculinity and femininity, have shaped those attitudes.
3. Apply analytical concepts developed through class reading and discussion to thoughtful, clearly written independent work.
4. Describe the concept of gender as a performance undertaken within specific historical circumstances.
5. Establish a quality of writing at the level of sentences, paragraphing, and constructing arguments that complies with the requirements of a "2,000 word" Gordon Rule class.

Paper Maintenance Responsibilities

Students are responsible for maintaining duplicate copies of all work submitted in this course and retaining all returned, graded work until the semester is over. Should the need arise for a resubmission of papers or a review of graded papers; the student is responsible for making this material available.

Attendance and Make Up Policy

Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found in the online catalog at: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>.

Attendance in this class is mandatory. You may miss THREE classes (unexcused absences) with no penalty to your grade. For each unexcused absence after THREE, you will lose 10 points off your final grade. However, in general, acceptable reasons for absence from or failure to participate in class include illness, serious family emergencies, special curricular requirements (e.g., judging trips, field trips, and professional conferences), military obligation, severe weather conditions, religious holidays, and participation in official university activities such as music performances, athletic competition or debate. Absences from class for court-imposed legal obligations (e.g., jury duty or subpoena) must be excused. Other reasons also may be approved and will be handled by your instructor on a case-by-case basis.

How CLASS PARTICIPATION affects your grade

I expect students to participate in class discussions and pay attention. Although no “points” are assigned as part of your grade, let’s say, for example, your final grade is 895 (B+). If your class participation has been productive, your grade would be “bumped up” to an A-. If you have not participated in class, your grade would remain at a B+. I will look for “quality” not “quantity.” In other words, your grade will not be favorably influenced by talking just to talk. I expect you to make intelligent and insightful comments in relation to the films viewed and the materials read. In addition, inattention in class, such as reading the newspaper, checking social media, and checking your phone/internet for unrelated activities also will be noted and will discourage your instructor from “bumping up” your grade.

TEXTS

REQUIRED

- Fun Home: A Family Tragicomic. Author: Alison Bechdel
- Red, White, And Royal Blue. Author: Casey McQuiston
- Lillith's Brood. Author: Octavia E. Butler

OTHER READING RESPONSIBILITIES

ARES: There are additional readings for this course available for free through Library West’s Course Reserve System (ARES). You can access these readings through CANVAS from the COURSE RESERVES button in the left hand margin. You also can access them directly from Library West’s website:

<http://www.uflib.ufl.edu>.

The specific readings are identified in the Schedule of Classes and Assignments. You can decide if you want to print the essays or use them online.

Modes of Submission

WRP and Analysis Essay:

- Are due at 9:35 am on the due date
- WRP and Analysis Essay must be uploaded on CANVAS and turn in a paper copy.
- Double spaced and include the word count after your name in parentheses. Example: Sam Student (1225). For the WRP, you will record the word count for each of the four sections.

- Use MLA citation style
- Late work will be penalized 10% per calendar day. The "late clock" begins at 9:36 am the day the paper is due, so the paper is 1-day late if it is turned in after 9:35 am on the due date.
- Note: either turning in a paper copy or uploading on CANVAS will stop the "late clock"; however, your paper will not be graded until you have submitted both the paper and uploaded copy.
- Note: If your paper copy and uploaded copy on CANVAS do not match, you will receive a zero on the assignment.

In-Class Exams:

- Exams are taken on paper in class.
- Your instructor will provide the paper
- You must be in class for the exam dates. Make-up exams are possible only if you can adequately document your inability to be present due to a personal hardship or due to your involvement in a university-sponsored event or a religious holiday.

Optional Rewrite:

- Turn in original paper copy with instructor's comments
- Upload rewrite under Optional Rewrite Assignment on CANVAS. No paper copy of re-write required. Highlight any and all changes made in the rewrite. NOTE: for printed copies, highlights do not have to be in color.
- No late rewrites can be accepted
- Late points cannot be made up in rewrites

ASSIGNMENT DESCRIPTIONS

You will complete four assignments this semester (and one optional assignment, if you choose):

1. One Writing Response Paper [WRP] (1000 minimum words): 250 points (25% of grade)
2. One Analysis Essay (1000 minimum words): 250 points (25% of grade)
3. Two In-class, non-cumulative, closed book exams: 2 @ 250 points = 500 points (50% of grade)
4. Optional Rewrite of either WRP or Analysis Essay for the average of the two grades.

You are responsible for reviewing the detailed assignment documents for each assignment. You can find these descriptions on CANVAS under each assignment.

1. Writing Response Reading Paper (WRP): 1000 words minimum to 1800 maximum

You will choose one of the texts studied in the 1st part of the semester. This assignment has four parts:

- a. Thesis: Identify the author's thesis of the text
- b. Summary: Summarize text in your own words
- c. ITC (Intertextual connection): Compare and contrast the text you summarized to a text you found outside of class.
- d. Opinion: Explain why you liked the text or why you did not like the text or how it affects/impacts your own life experiences using specific examples from the text.

2. Analysis Essay: 1000 words minimum to 1800 maximum

You will write a thesis-driven essay that will require close analytical reading of texts and/or comparison/contrast of two texts. You will have a choice of several possible prompts to use as your starting point for your analysis essay. You will receive a detailed assignment sheet for this assignment early in the semester.

3. In-Class, Closed-Book Reading/Comprehension Exams

You must keep up with the reading so you can participate meaningfully in class discussions and get the maximum benefits from this course. In order to get credit for keeping up with the reading and taking good notes, you will take TWO closed-book reading/comprehension exams to demonstrate that you are adequately reading, paying attention in class, and understanding and interpreting the texts. Each reading exam is non-cumulative and requires you identify prompts from reading/viewing assignments as well as answer multiple-choice questions.

4. Optional Re-write: You will have the option to rewrite either the WRP or the Analysis Essay for the average of the two grades (you cannot rewrite both). In order to get credit for the rewrite, you must upload your rewrite with highlighted changes on CANVAS under "REWRITE" on the assignment page by 9:25 am. Late points cannot be made up with rewrites. Late rewrites cannot be accepted.

ACCESSIBILITY AND ACCOMMODATIONS

UF Disability Resource Center strives to provide quality services to students with physical, learning, sensory or psychological disabilities, to educate them about their legal rights and responsibilities so that they can make informed decisions, and to foster a sense of empowerment so that they can engage in critical thinking and self- determination.

<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/>

001 Building 0020 (Reid Hall). For information, call 352-392-8565 or email accessuf@dso.ufl.edu

If you have a documented disability, please set up a confidential discussion with me before week three to discuss how this may impact your performance and how I can best accommodate your needs.

Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the UF Disability Resource Center (352.392.8565) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodations. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Students are expected to act in accordance with the University of Florida policy on academic integrity (see Student Conduct Code or this web site for more details: www.dso.ufl.edu/judicial/procedures/academicguide.php).

Cheating, lying, misrepresentation, or plagiarism in any form is unacceptable and inexcusable behavior and may result in a reduction of course grade and a report to university officials.

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The Honor Code (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honorcode/>) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class."

STUDENT ASSISTANCE AND EMERGENCIES

Students may occasionally have personal issues that arise in the course of pursuing higher education or that may interfere with their academic performance. Students are encouraged to contact the UF Counseling & Wellness Center (352-392-1575; <http://www.counseling.ufl.edu>) for confidential assistance and support. Contact the University Police Department (352-392-1111) or 911 for emergencies.
